Documentary Filmmaking: Telling Local Stories

For Ages 13+ February 18-20

Three-Day Intensive Workshop

11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

$200 for Members / $250 for non-members

Class taught by our new
Director of Film Education
Russell Katz

Join Russell Katz, new Director of Film Education at The Picture House, for an inspiring, hands-on documentary filmmaking course designed for teens eager to tell real-world stories through film.

Over three immersive days, students will learn the fundamentals of documentary storytelling—including story development, interviewing, shooting, and editing—while collaborating to create a short documentary spotlighting EVAC, the volunteer EMS service that supports the Bronxville–Eastchester–Tuckahoe community.

Spaces are limited: scan or go to thepicturehouse.org/education for more information.
